Monthly Sales
El Paso County

This graph shows the total number of Solds for the month. Comparing this data over the past 10 years helps determine the current trends in the market.

QUARTERLY DATA

Comparing data for the past 10 years

This graph shows the total number of active listings on the market and new listings coming on the market for the same period.

The correlation between new listings and solds helps assess the health of the market. A large gap between the two lines indicates an imbalanced market.

QUARTERLY DATA

Comparing data for the past 10 years

This graph shows the Average & Median Sales Prices for the same period over the past 10 years. Sales prices are the true “score” of the market.

The price range a home is within dictates the odds of selling in the next 30 days. Generally the lower the price, the more likely it will sell.

SUMMARY

Colorado Springs Real Estate Market Update – April 2025

The Colorado Springs housing market through April 2025 has solid momentum and signs of growing activity on both the buying and selling sides.

- Active Listings surged to 2,325, up 44% compared to last year. That means more inventory and options for buyers.
- New Listings also climbed, with 1,533 homes hitting the market—an increase of 19%, showing that sellers are feeling more confident.
- Closed Sales totaled 908, which is a 10% jump from the same time last year, pointing to stronger buyer demand.
- When it comes to prices: The average sales price edged up 1.8% to $586,132, while the median price held steady at $500,000.

Overall, the market is showing healthy growth and a more balanced pace. Buyers have more homes to choose from, and while prices remain relatively stable, sellers are still seeing solid returns. It's a great time for both sides to engage as we head into the busy spring season.
